

TWO SMALL FARES ONLY ARRIVALS

LIGHT RECEIPTS OF FISH REPORTED HERE THIS MORNING.

Only two small mackerel trips have been received since yesterday. It gave the dealers a chance to clean up on the large receipts landed yesterday, and because it was the end of the week, dealers were not receptive toward another glut. Three gill netters were the only other arrivals, they landing 3500 pounds between them.

PIER RECEIPTS NEARLY FIVE AND HALF MILLION

For the week ending July 17, there were 102 arrivals at the Boston fish pier with 5,446,900 pounds of fresh fish as compared with 106 arrivals and receipts of 5,373,700 pounds in the same week of 1929.

From January 1 to date there have been 3560 arrivals and receipts of 157,801,775 pounds. In the same period of 1929, 3156 arrivals brought in 142,935,662 pounds.

Receipts of groundfish have been large and the fleet have landed quite a number of market codfish. The good catch is attributed in a measure to the large number of scallop boats operating on the fishing grounds. The rims thrown overboard from the scallop boats attract the codfish.

LESS SWORDFISH LANDED TO DATE

Swordfish have been in light supply for this season of the year and at the Boston pier to date amount to 8038 fish as compared with 11,664 in the corresponding period of 1929.
